Interstate Commerce Commission to Use Road's Figures for Quick Valuation. GROUPS ASKED

Majority, However, Are Considering Only Old Classifications.

In applying the 5% per cent rate return guaranteed the railroads under the new transportation act, the Interstate Commerce Commission will be obliged to use a temporary valuation for the roads based upon their so-called "book," or property investment value. This became evident yesterday at a hearing called by the commission on the question of grouping the carriers for rate-making purposes and determining the value to be used for computing the percentage rate return. Arguments of the railroad executives, investors and even representatives of shippers made before the commission today all were in favor of adopting the property investment value as a temporary valuation. Since the commission must apply the 84 per cent return on an annual basis besinding September 1, next, it was pointed out there is nothing for the commission to do but to accept the roads' own figures.

Commission's Figures Not Ready. Commission's Figures Not Ready.

Completion of the commission's valuation of the transportation systems of the country, authorized by the valuation set passed several years, ago, cannot be accomplished in less than two years. Some basis must be determined upon at once to put return provision of the Esch-Cummins act in operation.

The hearing before the commission began today was called to discuss two subjects:

1. Whether the rate adjustments

1. Whether the rate adjustments under the law shall be made for the carriers as a whole, or by rate groups or territories to be designated by the commission, and if the latter, what rate groups or territories shall be designated?

2. What methods should be employed for determining the aggre-gate value of railroad property of he carriers as a whole, or in each of such rate groups or territories. Most railroad men agree that the old classifications should apply under the new act. B. F. Bush, of the Missouri Pacific, representing the Southwestern interests, argued for a special Southwestern classification, as did Stanley Johnson, of the Rock Island, representing some of the Western trunk lines.

Book Value Adoption Urged. S. Davies Warfield, president, and Forney Johnston, counsel for the Na-tional Association of Owners of Railroad Securities, urged the adoption of the book value, Alfred Thom, counsel for the Association of Railroad Executives, outlined the position of the railroad executives as "The point before the commission

The Rev. A. Simon. the carriers believe these accounts for the several groups are the minimum conservative figures now susceptible of use.

"In our judgment, the property investment accounts should be considered in connection with and supplemental to any other available evidence sufficiently complete and reasonably adequate for the purpose. But the basis of the value now arrived at should not be the incomplete data compiled in connection with the work of the valuation now in progress under the Fedcral valuation act, as it is imporant that the final valuation under that act should not be anticipated or prejudiced in this proceeding."

BOARD HEARS HUT EVIDENCE

Both Sides Introduce Mass Of Documents to Substantiate Claims.

Two More Motions Atta ing Ball Act Filed in Hotel Complaint

The Eagle Hut case will be as gued before the Rent Commission today, the testimony of Postmaster Merritt O. Chance, Assistant Postmaster William H. Hayoock and District Commissioner Louis Brownlow having consumed the entire day yesterday.

Both sides introduced a mass of documents as evidence, and Commissioner A. Leftwith Sinclair states yesterday that examination of the case by the commission will require several days. Attorneys stated last night there was a movement to set-night there was a movement to set-the case.

The controversy centers around the ownership of the ground on which the Eagle Hut is located, the jurisdiction of the Rent Commission and the sufficiency of the notice to vacate served on the postal authorities. Commissioners contend that the propostic below to the Disc. the propertly belongs to the Dis-trict; that it was rented to the Post-master without authority, and that they having served noice to quit of the Y. M. C. A. were under no obligation to notify the subtenant.

The case will be argued today by Henry E. Glassie, representing the government and Francis H.

Stephens, corporation counsel the District. The Monmouth Hotel case will be heard tomorrow. James L. Kar-rick, owner of the apartment, who last week asked that 66 of the 110 complaints be dismissed on the ground that the complaintants were not lawful tenants, yesterday filed two additional motions assailing the constitutionality of the Ball act. One motion asks that the case be dismissed and the other requests that the portion of the complaint, asking that the commission determine rents, be stricken
